1. On Friday, 7 August 1959, I telephone Mr. Harry Thompson, Director, National Capital Parks to request permission for the use of the George Washington Memorial Parkway to handle the traffic to our new headquarters building site on the day of the cornerstone ceremony. (Date to be the latter part of October).

2. I explained to Mr. Thompson that I had called Mr. Tarwater who had assured me that with Mr. Thompson's concurrence the Parkway could be made available to us, and that, in fact, the Parkway is passable now from one end to the other.

3. Mr. Thompson assured me that they would cooperate in any way they could and that the matter could be handled on an informal basis and would not require a written request.
